Opus Essential Watercolours

Vibrant colours that mix with ease, Opus Essential Watercolours have a wonderfully soft and creamy texture, and are loaded with intense, permanent pigments.

Formulated to meet professional quality standards, Opus Essential Watercolours are made in small batches in North America. They feature high concentrations of permanent, intense, and reliable pigments.

These watercolours are perfect for painting in the studio, or for plein air adventures. They mix easily with water and move across the page beautifully with a brush.

Use them at full strength or thinned with water, gum arabic, or other watercolour mediums.
